1. Rep's Update:

President – Ana Pavlova:

- Sent notices email;
- Meeting with Vicki;
- Infrastructure Committee: I raised Theo's idea about flying the national flags of the four nations of the UK on their national days. It did not go down very well, as it was too political. I spoke to Rahele, and suggested we could do different activities themed around national days.
- Academic Committee: update on Academic Committee paper. The paper I wrote went down well. There were no objections, and we're fine to trial it for a few terms, as long as people are aware they can leave positive feedback too.
- Presidents Committee.
- There was a complaint about the croquet outside MTB - told college.

Vice-President – Ed Piggott:

- Trying to get in touch with Magdalena over Focus Group - seems to not be replying so speaking to her in person asap.

Secretary – Curtis Crowley:

- Sent an email advertising the Travel Grants and how to apply for them;
- Will follow up with some reminders so that the grants are hopefully contested;
- Wrote the minutes for last week's meetings.

Treasurer – James Brown:

- Allocated this term's Blue Funds. £1310 this time, just need to get bank details.
- Sorted out an issue with a specific case, which has now been sorted.

AccAff – Sophie Roche:

- Organised tours this week, and found out how much of a grammar school the Howard School is and the requirements to get into the Brilliant Club for an appropriately access-concerned party.

Welfare and Equal Opportunities – Rosie Tabor and Cameron East:

- Rosie went to the Student Support Committee on Wednesday and tried to clarify some confusion over Vac Res for JCR science projects;
- They thought we only needed Vac Res because students are disorganized. These are 8-week projects, but we can't start until after exams, i.e. 3rd week.

Compiled by the JCR Secretary

- OUSU order being collected this week;
- Ordered in moon cups;
- Brought to our attention the free prescriptions motion - what ever happened with this, was it decided it needed to go through several times? Tirzah says that it went through twice but not sure how much this is true/if Hannah lost the original minutes.

International Students' Rep – Tatjana Marks:

- Posted in the JCR about an international event organised by OUSU.

LGBTQ Rep – Elise Page:

- Went to Oxford Pride, got some posters for LGBT Friends which is a helpline specifically for queer people. I'll put them all up very soon.

Entz Reps – James Atkey and Nathan Peters:

- Nothing to report.

Charities & Communities Rep – Hannah Taylor:

- Nothing to report.

Environment & Ethics Rep – Ben Jones:

- Been in contact with the Rachel about putting motion sensors in college, but she said that that wasn't her domain and to contact Collin, which I did, but he's out of the office until Monday, so I waiting on a reply from him;
- Emailed the JCR about recycling.

Sports and Societies Rep – Harry Thomas:

- Cleared and cleaned the sports cupboard, which was disgusting;
- Will ask college to reroof it as it leaks.

Careers Officer – Olayemi Eso:

- I met with the development office to discuss privacy issues. We can publish the spreadsheet as there are no names at all. Currently writing biographies for the features.
- I'm planning to feature five people to be 'poster alumni'.

DODO – Hannah Choi:

- Started sorting out the DVD survey;
- Working on some Welfare pages for the JCR website.

Freshers' Rep – Theo Davies-Lewis:

- Nothing to report.

2. Matters Arising from Updates

Prescriptions

In short, no one really knows what happened with the original motion and why the minutes are nowhere to be found. The consensus was that as we don't have the minutes, the motion will have to be resubmitted.
